Invitation to

the 2019 'Belt and Road' Law School Student Forum

The 'Belt and Road' Law School Student Forum is hosted by the China University of Political Science and Law(CUPL), organized by the Civil, Commercial and Economic Law School, and Youth Research Centre. The forum is inspired by the implementation of the 'Belt and Road' policy and of the 'Double First-class' university development policy. As a platform for direct communicating and academic discussing among law students from related countries, the Forum intends to improve the degree of knowledge exchange, of thoughts and values acceptance and of emotion understandings among related countries, to enhance the degree of internationalization of law students and academic ability of university students, to foster international communication skill of youth students. Our aim is to build the Forum to be a legal education program with international reputation in the future.

The 'Belt and Road' Law School Student Forum gained highly social reputation during last two years. 2017 the Forum set up the 'Belt and Road' Law School Students' Union, and held both the opening ceremony of the Youth Research Centre and the signing ceremony of Saide Youth Development Fund which aims to support youth students to develop their studies. 2017 and 2018 the Forum had deeply discussion on the topics of 'Opportunities and Challenges for Law School Students under the 'Belt and Road' Initiative ' and 'Exchange of Thoughts, Discussion of Youth Development' respectively.

2019 the 'Belt and Road' Law School Student Forum is going to be held on October 22nd - 25th. It plans to invite students and academic staff from members of the 'Belt and Road' Law School Students' Union and other universities.

The Topic of 2019 the Forum: 'International Perspective and Cultural Exchange of Law Students under the 'Belt and Road' Initiative '.
