Book Fairs at UTAR

As announced by the Higher Education Minister in the press on 10 December 2011, students in public and private local institutions of higher education, matriculation and Form Six can collect their RM200 book vouchers from 3 January 2012. Only Malaysian students are eligible to receive the book vouchers.

Students can collect their book vouchers from their respective faculty from 3 January 2012 to 31 March 2012. Please bring along your identity card.

The book vouchers are valid for three months from 1 January to 31 March 2012. The book vouchers are not exchangeable for cash. Students can redeem the book vouchers from all participating bookshops.

Please be informed that UTAR has made arrangement with the bookshop operator in the University to hold book fairs in its campuses in January/February 2012. Books will be offered at special prices during the book fairs. Book vouchers are acceptable at these book fairs and the bookshops in the University.
