Public Disclosure Forum on:
A taste for dim sum: Exploring determinants of firms’ participation in the new offshore renminbi debt securities market

Speaker: Professor Dr Paul D. Mizen
Centre for Finance, Credit and Macroeconomics
School of Economics
University of Nottingham, United Kingdom

Date: 15 February 2016 (Monday)
Time: 2pm – 4pm
Venue: IDK4, UTAR Kampar Campus
CPD: 2

Paul D. Mizen is Professor of Monetary Economics and Director of Centre for Finance, Credit and Macroeconomics at the University of Nottingham in United Kingdom. Professor Mizen has a wide interest in matters related to monetary policy, central banking, financial markets, corporate finance, credit crunches and financial crises. His research has addressed issues such as the access to bank and bond finance by firms, use of trade credit, the importance of ratings to firms and their correlation with balance sheet fundamentals, the role of the credit channel in monetary policy transmission, and monetary policy reaction functions. His research is often pursued in collaboration with central banks and international organisations.

Professor Mizen has been ranked top 5% of listed authors in Europe, and top 10% or better in 36 out of 38 research quality indicators.

THIS EVENT IS OPEN TO STAFF, STUDENTS AND PUBLIC